ECE[®] Aid Newsletter

A charitable initiative developed to provide free evaluation reports for vulnerable and displaced populations.

Dear Friends,

It's the last day of August! This can be an exciting and often anxious time for many. Students and educators are heading back to school, new routines are getting set, and the weather, at least in Wisconsin, is just beginning to show signs of fall. Cooler breezes, longer shadows in the sun, and autumnal flowers like asters and black-eyed Susans brighten the day as cicadas buzz away.

Heading into the fall and winter of 2022, it's important to reflect on our accomplishments from the first half of the year. You can read about the ECE[®] Aid anniversary below. Likewise, ECE[®] Aid continues to receive referrals for our special Ukraine Emergency Response. And ECE-donated fee waivers have helped with some our wait list each month.

But more can and should be done to close 2022 out strong.

ECE[®] Aid Updates

Happy Anniversary ECE[®] Aid!

You can always donate (we won't say no to more funding)! Also, follow our social media accounts (see below my signature) so you can help spread the word to friends, family, and colleagues about the work being done at ECE and the benefits of what a credential evaluation can provide to immigrants and refugees alike. Together, let's make access to higher education in the U.S. and Canada a reality for so many people across our shared global community.

Happy Anniversary ECE® Aid!

August is the anniversary of ECE® Aid. We are so happy to announce that since 2016, because of supporters like you, we've been able to provide over 625 fee waivers for current or future doctors, engineers, lawyers, teachers, nurses, and more.

Endless gratitude and thanks to our tireless staff at ECE, our dedicated board of directors, our multitude of participating organizations, and to you, for keeping this dream alive for so many. It is an honor to be part of such a caring group of people.

Let's see if we can reach 700 fee waivers by the end of this year. In honor of our sixth year of ECE® Aid, can you spare an extra $6 to help assist people on our waiting list?
