

Global Partnership Insights – Institution Review™

Customer: Sample Customer

Reference: SC001

Date: 01 January 2026

Country: Sample Country

Institution: University of Testing Technology

Recognition Status: Institution offers some recognized programs, based on program status

Recognition Authority: Ministry of Higher Education and Research

Additional Notes:

University of Testing Technology (UTT) was established as an Institute for Testing Technology (ITT) in 1998. It was upgraded to a university status by Ministerial decree (MOHER/HEI/45/2015) in 2015. University of Testing is an approved institution of higher education in Sample Country, however only its Engineering programs have been fully accredited since its inception.

****

Please see page 2 for explanatory notes.

Explanatory Notes:

For the purpose of this review, ECE researched the available professional and online resources to determine the status of an institution/program at the time of research. The results of each review are presented in one of the four statements below:

| Statement                                                                   | Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Institution is a recognized degree-granting institution                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Institution offering the program operates in a country (or other political division) where academic degree-granting recognition is assessed at the institutional level; AND</li><li>• This institution holds academic degree-granting recognition from the relevant educational authority where it operates (e.g. Ministry of Higher Education, Higher Education Council, Accrediting body etc.).</li></ul> |
| Institution offers some recognized programs, based on program status        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Institution/organization operates in a country (or other political division) where academic recognition for this type of program is assessed at the program level; AND</li><li>• Selected programs hold academic recognition. (This Review does not confirm which programs are recognized.)</li></ul>                                                                                                       |
| Institution is not a recognized degree-granting institution                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Institution operates in a country (or other political division) where academic degree-granting recognition is assessed at the institutional level; AND</li><li>• This institution lacks academic degree-granting recognition from the relevant educational authority where it operates (e.g. Ministry of Higher Education, Higher Education Council, Accrediting body etc.).</li></ul>                      |
| Institution does not offer any recognized programs, based on program status | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Institution/organization operates in a country (or other political division) where academic recognition for this type of program is assessed at the program level; AND</li><li>• This institution does not offer any programs that hold academic recognition.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                     |
| Recognition Authority                                                       | Denotes the name of the relevant authority responsible for conferring academic degree-granting recognition or programmatic recognition within the country (or other political division) where the institution operates. When there are multiple recognition authorities within a country, only the recognition authority relevant to the status of the institution is provided.                                                                     |

*** Nothing below this line ***